The Restaurant

Our menu has been carefully created by our chefs to represent the fusion of the very best that Scandinavian and French culinary arts have to offer. This casual fine dining restaurant loves to conjure up creative dishes, mostly from local ingredients available at any given time.

We do make it a point to reduce selection anxiety by offering smaller courses, so that you can indulge your senses by having a few, rather than just one. While doing that we still want our guests to enjoy the selections of different types of steaks in both large and small sizes.
